

To take a firearms course for an instructor rating (Rifle Range Directors and other applications, i.e. summer camps, etc.) you must meet the following criteria:

- You must be a citizen of The United States*
- You must be 21 years of age to be certified as a Shooting Sports Director
- You have never been arrested and convicted of any crime
- You must provide a current driver's license that includes a picture ID prior to taking the course.

These rules have been set forth by Federal Law in regards to non-citizen firearms training.

*Age rules have been set by State Health Department Regulations. Students who successfully pass this course and are 21 years or older are certified as Directors. Under 21 (18 years old and up) will be certified as "Assistant Directors" under NRA rules and State mandate.
